BREATHALYZER
ALCOSCAN ALP-1

Highly-upgraded professional breathalyzer
for measuring alcohol in human breath

ALP-1 is highly-upgraded professional breathalyzer for measuring alcohol in human breath.

Test results memorized on ALP-1 as well as can be printed out through wireless connection with printer.

And also ALP-1 can be connected to PC so test results can be recalled and storage through PC software.

ALP-1 user-setting mode enables to make customized setting easy and conveniently along with user's demands.

Is it a police level breathalyzer?

ALP-1 is a highly-upgraded professional breathalyzer.

Korean Police have used it as the evidential device from 2013.

What function does ALP-1 have?

· Bluetooth Function

   The test result can be printed out without connecting the cable.

· SD Card: Test result can save on the SD card.

· Wireless printing (IrDA connecting)

· PC & Printer connectable

· Memory function: 500 test results

What measurement mode does ALP-1 have?

· Normal mode: Test result showing with digits.

· Fast mode: Test will be quicker and more convenient.

   The result is showing with "PASS" or "FAIL" rather than numerical reading.

   You don't need to push the button to take a breath.

   You don't need to use mouthpiece, use the open container.

· Passive mode: This is manual mode to take a breath by pushing a button.

   You can use it for both Normal and fast mode.

Sensor Type	Accuracy (5%)
Fuel Cell Alcohol sensor	0.950‰ / 0.100‰ / 0.105‰
Working & Storage	SD card
+40℃ 50℃ / -5℃ -10℃
Weight	Dimension (mm)
198g (Including batteries)	133 (H) / 33 (T) / 64 (W)

Fast Mode
Use Open Mouthpiece

Normal Mode
Use Mouthpiece